

Matrimony Has Separated Frank Gould and His Dogs.

A Happy Family in Frank Gould's Kennels.

New York, Dec. 6.—Frank J. Gould, dog fancier and lover of horses, intends to give up all his hobbies after Christmas in view of his recent marriage to Miss Helen Kelly.

Mr. Gould has always been an enthusiastic fancier of rough and smooth coated St. Bernard dogs, and his kennel at Lyndhurst, the country seat of Miss Helen M. Gould at Irvington-on-the-Hudson, is worth at least $100,000, according to Kennel Master Walter Johnston.

For four years Mr. Gould has exhibited his dogs at all the big bench shows with great success, and has won more prizes than any other owner of St. Bernards. At the Horse Shows he was an enthusiastic exhibitor, and many blue ribbons were awarded to his horses.

Now, Mr. Gould has decided to give up these pleasures and take up yachting. The kennel house is similar to a colonial cottage, and is finished in hard wood. On the lower floors are rooms for washing the dogs and stalls for the valuable animals. Each stall has a movable bed of straw, which works like a folding bed, and is well ventilated and lighted.

Mr. Gould has given instructions to his kennel manager to dispose of the dogs in the best way he sees fit. "I want you to see that every animal gets a good home, where he will be treated with kindness," he says.

On Wednesday last, Mr. Gould and Miss Kelly visited the kennel and countermanded the order of the sale of four St. Bernard pups valued at $1,000 each, as he has decided to give them away.

IN THE DAYS GONE BY.

Jester—Who has placed that varietal hat upon the ground?—Say, friend, will you wagger your donkey that I don't fit your hat over your head without touching the hat?

Jester—Say, friend, I think the donkey in an odd way as mine already.

Jester—Now, friend, watch thine hat closely to see that I keep my word.

"Hat! Hat! I not so? Have I not fitted thine hat as I said? Ta, ta! Never doubt a merry man's word, varietal, after this!"

EMERGENCY RATIONS.

Household: "Please, morn, cook art me to say as the fishmonger did'st call, so she took a few of the goldfish for dinner last night."

EXPENSIVE DINNERS.

Two That Were Served in Delmonico's Old Place in New York.

Probably the most expensive dinner ever given at Delmonico's old restaurant, on Fourteenth street, New York, was that given by Mr. Morton Peto to the tea and coffee merchants of New York, 200 in number. It cost $25,000. The rarest wines and the most elaborate decorations were mere incidents. The menu cards were of gold, and the guests sat on silk cushions on which their names were embroidered. In the center of the table was a miniature lake in which swam swans taken from Central park. Clara Louise Kellogg received $1,000 for singing two songs at this feast and a present besides of a diamond bracelet. The salon was smothered in flowers.

Another dinner given at one of the Delmonico establishments for ten people cost $400 a plate. It was luxurious enough to be classical. The waiters, five of them, were dressed as sailors. The host was a yachtsman, and he bought the waiters' clothes. The guests drank, or, rather, tasted, every stoned liquor that ever has been brought to America. They finished with a pousse cafe made of eleven liquors. Before each plate sat a cut glass basin about twenty inches in diameter and four inches deep. Each was nearly filled with water perfumed with attar of roses, on the surface of which floated half open pond lilies. In the basin a perfect model of the yacht owned by the host was placed. It was cut in red cedar wood, with cabin, rail, wheel for steering, brasswork, such as belaying pins and binnacles, manrope worked and trimmed with sailor knots, scraped pine masts and booms, rigging of silken cords colored as it would be in the original, and sails of satin. There were a gold and many other gewgaws.—New York Sun.

FLOWER AND TREE.

A good tree well planted will usually grow whether the work is done in the spring or fall.

A white pine will measure twenty-five feet at twenty years and gain twenty-five feet more in the next ten years.

The smallest tree in the world is the Greenland birch. Its height is less than three inches, yet it covers a radius of two or three feet.

In dealing with your plants be prompt. If one needs attention, see that it gets it at once. This is the only way to have success in plant growing.

Experts assert upon investigation that the fir trees of western Washington grow from 150 to 300 feet high and are from five to thirty-five feet in diameter and are stronger than oak of the Atlantic coast.

If you want your palms to thrive in an ordinary sitting room, sponge the leaves once a week with lukewarm water to which a little milk has been added. Then stand the plant for two

Kodol

Digests what you Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

When the stomach is diseased all the other organs suffer, hence fatal diseases of the heart, liver, lungs and kidneys are often the result of improper digestion. Kodol, Dyspepsia Cure, contains all the natural digestive fluids and by digesting what you eat, it cures the indigestion without aid from the stomach, allowing it to rest and regain its healthy condition and permitting you to eat all the good food you want. "My rest is often disturbed at night by irregular heart action which I believe is on account of my stomach being overloaded with undigested food. I keep a bottle of Kodol, Dyspepsia Cure nearby and a small dose always gives me instant relief." Ed. Thomas, Leitchfield, Ky.

THE KAISER'S WHISKERS.

Famed William Hohenzollern, who sets so fast a pace, Has suddenly decided That he will change his face. All Germany is startled, And reasons widely range In telling what has happened To bring about the change.

For years the famous kaiser Has on his upper lip Worn fierce moustache, up pointed And twisted at each tip. Where'er he went this feature Would much attention draw, But now he's raising whiskers Upon the royal jaw.

Thus far no explanation Has from the kaiser come, And courtiers who wonder Are keeping mighty mum. The people daily gather To watch the monarch's letting The royal whiskers grow The fashion will be followed Till shavers have no show.

And all the portrait dealers In all the German towns Are waiting on their faces The blazond brand of frowns. For pictures of the kaiser That show a fierce moustache Are the least made worthless And can't be sold for cash.

"Tis thus the kaiser's whiskers Have come to pass, And cause much speculation On why he made the change. Of course he has some reason, And he may make it known When to his satisfaction That beard has fully grown." —Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

His Son Bill Could Tell. "Have you any piscatorial diversion here?" asked the boarder from Boston. "I can't say rightly as we have," replied the farmer. "We ain't much on them newfangled games up here, but
